New amphitheatre opening at Traill College

The outdoor space to be unveiled Wednesday will be used for arts, culture and heritage events

Naomi Stock TOWN naomi.stock@gmail.com

Michael Eamon, principal of Catharine Parr Traill College at Trent University, welcomes members of the community to the grand opening of the Jalynn Bennett Amphitheatre, on Wednesday from 11 a.m. to 12:15 p.m.

The amphitheatre, located at Traill College at 315 Dublin St., is a space which promises to be a new destination for the arts, culture, and heritage in our community.

Admission is free. To reserve a seat, or for more information, visit mycommunity.trentu.ca/AmphitheatreGrandOpening.

Basses and tenors needed

The Peterborough Singers are looking for tenors and basses who read sheet music and would like the opportunity to sing J.S. Bach's St. Matthew Passion. The choir will be performing this work in May 2024, with rehearsals beginning in September.

Other concerts in the 2023-2024 season will include Handel's Messiah, Yuletide Cheer, and a concert celebrating the music of Elton John. For more information, email singers@peterboroughsingers.com, visit peterboroughsingers.com, or call 705-745-1820.

Artisans Centre

The Artisans Centre Peterborough is hosting the Fire and Water Artistic Challenge, where local artists and artisans were challenged to create a work depicting the theme. Creative works depicting fire and water - including painting, woodwork, pottery, woven and felted items, and gourd art - will be on display in the atrium of Peterborough Square on Friday from 3 to 8 p.m.

The public is invited to vote for the People's Choice Award, which will be presented during the show, in addition to a juried prize. For more information, please visit artisanscentre.ca or call 705-775-1797.

Spring Time Muffin Party

Emmanuel United Church Women are hosting a Spring Time Muffin Party and Bake Sale on Saturday from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. Admission is $5 at the door. For more information, please call 705-742-8294.

The grand opening of the Jalynn Bennett Amphitheatre at Traill College, 315 Dublin St., takes place Wednesday from 11 a.m. to 12:15 p.m. All are invited. TRENT UNIVERSITY

AGP Opening Reception

The Art Gallery Peterborough (AGP) is hosting an opening reception, June 7 from 7 to 9 p.m., to celebrate the opening of two new exhibitions.

Wayfinding: Works from the Youth Art Mentorship Program features the work of six local youth artists: Amber Hazelwood, A. Carabine, Charley Pesonen, Kellan Mackenzie, Lauren Armstrong, and Mujgan Hussein Zada.

Tea with the Queens is an exhibition featuring David Bierk's "Portrait of Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II," which was previously in the Peterborough Memorial Centre, but has recently found a new home at the AGP.

The event is free and open to the public. Refreshments will be served after remarks. The AGP is an accessible venue.

For more information, please visit the website agp.on.ca or call 705-743-9179.
